The Honorable Homer Ferguson

Washington, D. C.

Dear Homer:

Almost any week-end, involving a visit on Saturday, would be agreeable in discussing the assistance that is available on the part of Russian war veterans, both of the old Imperial Army and the Russian Red Army.

The following would be the committee that would visit with you.

A member of this committee has advised me that it would be very helpful if you could have someone in the higher echelon of the Army meet with you so that the full military situation could be presented for consideration. Would it be possible for you to secure someone of that category? Of course, this first meeting would be strictly in confidence. The steps that would follow would undoubtedly evolve out of the discussion and decisions that are arrived at.

Will you be good enough to let me hear from you as soon as possible.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Larry S. Davidow
